

RUNNING START

AT EDMONDS COMMUNITY COLLEGE

What is Running Start?

Running Start is a statewide program that allows high school juniors and seniors to take college-level courses without paying tuition. Students receive both high school and college credit for classes completed at the college level.

Who is Eligible?

All high school juniors and seniors are welcome and able to participate.

Where Will I Take Classes?

Students may enroll simultaneously in high school and college classes, or solely at the college.

When Do Classes Meet?

Students may take classes day, evening, or online.

How Much Does Running Start Cost?

Tuition is FREE! Students only pay for fees and textbooks. Fees are waived for students that meet certain income criteria.

Why Should I Enroll?

Students get to experience the college environment at little or no cost! The credits earned through Running Start counts toward high school graduation requirements AND a college degree.
