

Articulation Agreement between

Edmonds Community College

INDIANA UNIVERSITY
SOUTH BEND

And

Indiana University South Bend

This document is a statement of the formal articulation arrangements for collaboration between Edmonds Community College and Indiana University South Bend (IU South Bend).

The purpose of the agreement is to define a smooth transfer process for Edmonds Community College students to complete their baccalaureate degree at IU South Bend and outlines transfer requirements, provisions, and related advertising considerations.

1. Upon completion of an associate's degree at Edmonds Community College, students will be accepted by IU South Bend at junior status with 90 transferable Edmonds quarter credits equivalent to 60 IU South Bend semester credits (grades of C or higher).
2. Transferring students must have a minimum cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 or C and a grade of C or better in each transferable course. Courses numbered lower than 100-level are not included in this transfer agreement.
3. International students who complete ENG 101 and ENG 102 with a grade of 2.0 or higher will have met the English proficiency requirements of IU South Bend, and will not need to submit separate proof of English proficiency at the time of application.
4. Transferring students must submit the following admission-related documents:
  - Official Edmonds transcript and complete academic records for all other post-secondary coursework.
  - Application for admission with application fee.

International students will also need to submit the following:

- Evidence of financial support for at least one year of study at IU South Bend.
- Copies of their immigration documents, i.e., passport identification page(s), I-20, student visa, and I-94 card.

5. Edmonds Community College and IU South Bend may choose to work cooperatively in developing promotional materials outlining the details of the transfer agreement.

This agreement will remain in effect until a mutually agreed-upon change is deemed necessary. This agreement may be terminated by either Edmonds Community College or IU South Bend with appropriate written notification. A twelve month notice shall be required if either institution decides to terminate the agreement.

This agreement shall become valid when it is signed by representatives of Edmonds Community College and IU South Bend.
