Memorandum of Understanding
Between
Ivy Tech Community College Northeast
And
Edmonds Community College, Lynnwood, Washington

1. Ivy Tech Community College Northeast and Edmonds Community College desire to establish a working relationship based on mutually beneficial opportunities for their students and/or communities.
2. Such opportunities may include grants, joint programs, affiliations, joint partnerships with third parties, shared curriculum, staff and faculty exchange, curriculum development, delivery of courses and programs, testing, etc.
3. Each college commits to notify the other when such opportunities present themselves. At that time each college will appoint a contact person (project manager) to develop plans necessary to adequately explore said opportunity.
4. This agreement may be voided by either party subsequent to a 30 working day notice.
