Thank you for your interest in being a vendor at Edmonds Community College. Below are the College’s policies regarding vending on our campus. Please review these policies.

What we need from you:
- Business License ID number (see Vendor Registration Form)
- Room Scheduling Request Form – each time you plan to sell on campus (or all three dates on one form for entire academic year)
- Vendor Registration Form – once per academic year

Vendor Day:
- Vendors will be welcome on campus on Wednesdays during the regular academic year; no reservations are accepted during summer quarter, finals week or breaks

Fee Information and Other Guidelines:
- The vending fee is $45 per day, payable at time of registration
- Each vendor will be limited to a maximum of three (3) Wednesdays per quarter
- Vendors are responsible for their own tables & chairs. Please do not use student study tables (see also “Vending in Snohomish Lobby”)
- Regular hours for vendors are 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Evening classes are also held on campus, and vendors may stay later if desired, on those nights when evening classes are in session; please note ending time on request form
- Your completed facilities use request form, returned to Scheduling with your $45 per day payment, will allow your assignment as a vendor on the EdCC campus, always subject to space availability. If no form is on file, we reserve the right to deny vending access
- Please bring a copy of your confirmation with you while on Edmonds Community College Campus
- There are two designated locations for vendors: one indoors: the first floor of Snohomish Hall (SNH), and outside in the courtyard (CRT). Space will be assigned based on preference and/or availability

Information about Vending on Edmonds Community College campus:
- Vendors marketing services or other non-tangibles may do so if their marketing materials meet all Better Business Bureau standards, and do not contain any information that may mislead the students or employees of Edmonds Community College, or any visitors to campus
- Displaying, pricing, and labeling of all merchandise is the responsibility of the vendor
If a vendor does NOT want customers touching or handling merchandise without assistance, it is the vendor’s responsibility to post readable signs at the display space instructing customers to NOT handle any merchandise without requesting the vendor’s assistance or permission.

Vendors are professional guests on the EdCC campus, and are expected to maintain a professional business-like and courteous demeanor at all times while on campus. Vendors may not participate in any activity that interferes with Edmonds Community College’s operations, or the provision of higher education programs to its registered students. If Campus Security on an EdCC administrator feels any vendor fails to adhere to these policies, the vendor will be asked by EdCC Campus Security to remove all merchandise and leave the campus in a cooperative and professional manner as quickly as possible.

Vendors may not physically touch any EdCC student, employee or visitor at any time for any reason.

Any matters regarding the potential purchase/sale of the vendor’s merchandise are strictly between the vendor and the potential customer.

All merchandise and personal property of the vendor are brought to the EdCC at the discretion and risk of the vendor, including any vehicles parked on EdCC’s campus while the vendor is on campus.

All merchandise is displayed for sale or marketing at the vendor’s own risk.

Security of all merchandise and personal property belong to the vendor is the responsibility of the vendor. This includes any vehicle(s) the vendor may park on campus. EdCC does not provide any special or additional security protection to the designated vending areas over and above that which it provides to any other area of the campus during normal business hours of EdCC’s campus.

EdCC is not responsible for stolen or damaged merchandise or personal property, or for any losses or damages that may be incurred by the vendor for any reason.
